

Hemophilia Higher Learning Scholarship Program 2022-2023

February 1, 2022

Dear Scholarship Applicant,

Drugco Health Specialty Pharmacy (Drugco) is pleased to announce the “Hemophilia Higher Learning Scholarship” for the 2022-2023 academic school year. Here at Drugco, we believe this scholarship will enable you to pursue your educational and/or career goals at the college, university, or vocational school of your choice. Parents of hemophilia patients are encouraged to apply as well.

Criteria for scholarship selection include a letter confirming your hemophilia diagnosis from your physician on letterhead, a personal essay of your academic and career goals, evidence of volunteer work in the community, two recommendation letters, and your most recent academic transcript. Drugco will award up to three (3) Hemophilia Higher Learning Scholarships for the 2022-2023 academic school. Each scholarship is valued at $1500.00. These scholarships will be awarded without regard to families’ financial circumstances, or whether or not applicants receive products or services from Drugco.

This application must be completed, postmarked and mailed to Drugco by July 1, 2022. Incomplete or late applications will not be eligible for consideration. If you have any questions, please contact the Drugco Hemophilia Higher Learning Scholarship Program Committee at julie@drugcopharmacy.com. All scholarship award recipients will be notified on or about July 15, 2022.
